GREETINGS FROM THE CHANCELLOR

Sharon L. Gaber

To Our Graduates:

Commencement is one of our most cherished traditions, one that marks a major milestone for you, as we celebrate the culmination of your transformative journey at UNC Charlotte. While you have done the hard work, this is also a day for your family, friends and faculty members to commemorate.

This year marks the 75th anniversary of UNC Charlotte's founding. In that short time, we have risen from a single center offering evening classes to 278 students to North Carolina's urban research university with more than 30,000 students. While we are still young, we have a rich history in making the dream of higher education a reality for students in North Carolina and beyond.

Our many accomplishments over these 75 years have been made possible by the extraordinary students, exceptional faculty and staff, dedicated alumni, generous friends and strong leaders, who helped us move forward.

UNC Charlotte is a University on the move, fearlessly shaping what's next for our students and alumni, as well as our city, state and world. In the last few months alone, we have achieved national recognition for innovation, social mobility and our response to COVID-19. And earlier in the fall, we announced a transformational move - the leap from Conference USA to the American Athletic Conference.

You should be proud of the degree you have earned from UNC Charlotte, as it provides you with much more than career opportunities. It represents the exceptional education you received. Throughout your time at UNC Charlotte, you have grown intellectually, emotionally and socially through lively classroom discussions, campus activities and internships. You have had opportunities to interact with individuals from other cultures and to engage in the greater Charlotte community. And as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, you have had to adjust to new ways of learning and studying. Through it all you have been resilient and you have persevered. You now have the tools needed to become successful leaders within your workplaces and in your communities.

I speak for the UNC Charlotte Board of Trustees, our faculty and staff, alumni and friends, when I offer congratulations to each of you and tell you that we are proud of your accomplishments. Thank you for letting us be a part of this significant journey in your lives.

You are now beginning a new relationship with the University as a proud member of the UNC Charlotte Alumni Association, more than 158,000 strong, spread out across the globe. Use this network. Get involved and stay engaged.

May your pride for UNC Charlotte grow stronger as the years go by and may you continue to cherish the friendships and memories you made on campus. Most importantly, always remember that wherever you go, you are a 49er!

Cordially,

Sharon L. Gaber
Chancellor

UNC CHARLOTTE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Susan D. DeVore, Chair

Susan DeVore is the former CEO and ongoing advisor to Premier with approximately 40 years of experience. DeVore's tenure with Premier has centered on driving innovation in healthcare and leading the industry through profound change by engaging stakeholders to co-develop solutions that support high-quality, efficient and sustainable care delivery models.

DeVore is an industry-leading thinker who has been named multiple times to Modern Healthcare's 100 Most Influential People and Top 25 Women in Healthcare lists. She is the recipient of the Charlotte Business Journal's 2018 Women in Business Lifetime Achievement Award, was named to Becker's Hospital Review's 2017 100 Great Healthcare Leaders to Know, and was recognized as a 2016 UNC Charlotte Distinguished Alumnus.

DeVore serves on the board of directors of Advent Health, Unum Group, and Anthem, Inc. In addition, DeVore serves as the chair of the UNC Charlotte Board of Trustees. Previously she served on the board of directors of Premier Inc. and served as the chair and a member of the board of trustees of the Healthcare Leadership Council, a D.C. based policy organization.

Under DeVore's leadership, Premier has been named as one of the World's Most Ethical Companies for the past 14 years and received the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award.

The UNC Charlotte Board of Trustees also includes Dennis N. Bunker III, Vice Chair; Carlos E. Sanchez, Secretary; Sharon Allred Decker; Wendy J. Grubbs, Christine P. Katziff; J. Brett Keeter; Fred W. Klein, Jr.; David W. Mildenberg; Sasha J. Weintraub; Dontá L. Wilson; Teross W. Young, Jr.; and Dick J. Beekman, Student Body President.

The new University logo was adopted in August of 2021 and captures the trailblazing spirit of UNC Charlotte: a strong and powerful institution, boldly charging into the future, much like the city we call home. The centerpiece is a distinctive mark called the "All-In C" that places the classic 49ers' gold-mining pick inside a collegiate-inspired "C" with beveled corners. It is an icon that represents the power to break new ground, the persistence to discover the unknown and the promise to build the future. The 9-degree forward tilt illustrates the brand's positive energy and forward momentum. The new University mark, along with the 2020 athletics mark, was designed by Todd Aldridge '92, a distinguished alumnus of UNC Charlotte's College of Arts + Architecture.

UNC CHARLOTTE BELL

The UNC Charlotte Bell, which for many years hung in the belfry of the old Elizabeth School at East Fifth Street and Travis Avenue in Charlotte, was given to Charlotte College in 1960 to be rung on ceremonial occasions.

It has been rung on special occasions such as March 2, 1965, when Charlotte College became the fourth branch of the University of North Carolina System and on August 11, 2010, to celebrate clearing the final hurdle to field UNC Charlotte's football team.

COMMENCEMENT BELL RINGERS

The ringing of the UNC Charlotte Bell at Commencement is an honorable tradition that recognizes an outstanding student leader who has demonstrated exemplary 49er spirit.

The student leaders chosen to ring the bell for the December 2021 Commencement Ceremonies are Sai Bharadwaj Reddy Arrabelly (Friday afternoon), Kelley C. Fluharty (Saturday morning), and Samuel S. Eutimio (Saturday afternoon).

TURNING OF THE TASSEL

In earlier times, universities awarded each graduate a hood signifying their academic station. Over the years, the hood for undergraduates has been replaced by a tassel. Tradition requires that before graduation the tassel is worn on the right hand side of the cap. After graduation, as a symbol of our new status as degree holders, the tassel is worn on the left. Dylan E. Turner, Graduate and Professional Student Government President, will lead the December 2021 Graduate School candidates in the turning of the tassel. Charles "Vince" Graham, Jr., Senior Class President, will lead the December 2021 Bachelor's candidates in the turning of the tassel.

BONNIE E. CONE, OUR FOUNDER

(1907-2003)

Bonnie E. Cone, the founder of UNC Charlotte, served the institution from its earliest days in 1946. Beginning as a teacher that year, she became director of the Charlotte Center of the University of North Carolina in 1947. She persuaded the legislature to keep the institution alive in 1949 when it was scheduled to close, resulting in the establishment of Charlotte College, which she served as president. The college became a four-year, state-supported institution in 1963. Cone was given her greatest acclaim for leading the successful campaign to convert Charlotte College into The University of North Carolina at Charlotte in 1965. She then served as vice chancellor for student affairs until her official retirement. Cone died March 8, 2003. In spring 2004, she was interred in Van Landingham Glen on the campus she loved and to which she dedicated her life.

EXPLANATION OF HONORS PROGRAMS, MERIT SCHOLARS, AND ACADEMIC DISTINCTION

Honors: The Honors College at UNC Charlotte provides students robust experiences crossing academic, cultural, community, and personal contexts, including undergraduate research, engagement with cultural variety, and the creation of community within the University and across the Charlotte metropolitan area. We support students as they become agents of their own vision, developing intellectually, culturally, and civically.

In all aspects of the Honors College experience, faculty, staff, and students embody:

- Intellectual curiosity and growth
- Collaboration and mutual investment in excellence as scholar citizens
- Diversity, inclusion, and equitable access
- Integrity and trustworthiness
- Treating all with dignity and respect

University Honors Program: Directly administered by the Honors College, the University Honors Program (UHP) is the oldest and largest multi-year honors program at UNC Charlotte, welcoming students from any major. As an interdisciplinary honors program, UHP encourages students to integrate learning from multiple academic disciplines with their own lived experiences to create new knowledge that is more than just the sum of its parts. Our students are also committed to putting their learning into practice through community-engaged coursework and program-wide service, enrichment, and social opportunities. To graduate with University Honors, a student must: complete all program requirements, including honors coursework; maintain a 3.0 cumulative grade point average and a 3.2 grade point average in honors courses; and receive a grade of "A" on the honors capstone thesis or project.

Department/College Honors: To graduate with honors recognition in a department or college honors program, a student will be recommended by the program's honors committee if they meet the grade point averages required (i.e., cumulative, in the department/college, and in honors courses), as well as complete the following:

- All required honors courses
- An honors capstone thesis or project, and receive an "A" for that course
- Any additional requirements specified by the program

Dual Honors: Students must complete requirements for both University Honors and a department/college honors program.

Merit Scholarships: Albert Scholars, Crown Scholars, Freeman Scholars, Johnson Scholars, Levine Scholars, and Martin Scholars are recipients of major four-year merit scholarships funded by University donors. Students participate in programming that fosters intellectual, social, and civic engagement and must continue to meet all scholarship conditions.

<https://levinescholars.charlotte.edu>, <https://honorscollege.charlotte.edu/about-us/merit-scholarships>

Graduation with Honors: Honors and merit scholars receive a notation on their transcript and a certificate. Honors and merit scholars graduation regalia includes custom-designed medallions and stoles denoting the honors and merit scholars programs.

Graduation with Academic Distinction: Undergraduate degrees are awarded Summa Cum Laude when the graduate's cumulative grade point average is 3.9 to 4.0, Magna Cum Laude when the grade point average is 3.7 or above but less than 3.9, and Cum Laude when the grade point average is 3.4 or above but less than 3.7. To be eligible to graduate with academic distinction, a student must earn a grade point average computed on at least 48 semester hours of credit completed in residence at UNC Charlotte. Honor cord colors are green/white for Summa Cum Laude graduates, white for Magna Cum Laude graduates, and green for Cum Laude graduates.

The commencement program must be prepared in advance. Therefore, all notations for honors are based upon student achievements as of the preceding term and are tentative. Final determination of graduation with honors or with distinction is made upon completion of the student's final term.

DEAN W. COLVARD, FIRST CHANCELLOR (1913-2007)

In April 1966, Dr. Dean W. Colvard became the first chancellor of The University of North Carolina at Charlotte. During his 12-year tenure, he presided over a period of rapid campus growth and development. Under his leadership, the institution was organized into colleges, residence halls were built, graduate work was initiated, and long-range planning started. His accomplishments included helping to create the University Research Park and the University's Urban Institute, whose mission is to seek solutions to the social, economic, and environmental challenges facing Charlotte and its urban communities. Colvard joined the University from the presidency of Mississippi State University, and he also served as a dean at North Carolina State University. Following his retirement in December 1978, Colvard helped complete Charlotte's Discovery Place Museum and was the founding board chair of the North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics. He also wrote books about his experience at NC State, Mississippi State, and UNC Charlotte. In 2001, Colvard received the UNC Charlotte Alumni Association's Alumnus by Choice Award, and in 2004, he received the Echo Foundation's Award Against Indifference. Colvard died in June 2007.

GREETINGS FROM THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

SARAH ABDELLAHI

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY, COMPUTING AND INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Congratulations class of 2021!

We nailed it! Particularly the multitaskers among us who had to use all of our self-discipline to keep ourselves from playing video games, running errands and taking quick naps during online classes...

Now that we are at the end of the tunnel, out of the cave and all dressed up, waiting to receive our degrees and certificates, let's look back at what this journey meant to us. A few weeks ago, I texted some of our 49er peers and asked "What are the most important things that you got from your grad life at UNC Charlotte?"

Not a single one mentioned "graduate degree" in reply!

Here I quote some of their answers:

"I learned to remain dedicated to my path till the end, despite obstacles and confusions."

"I learned being more perceptive and less judgmental about what I see and hear."

"I learned to understand and respect differences and diversity."

And they shared many more inspiring achievements. My favorite, of course, comes from my ex-roommate. She said she got: "An annoying Iranian roommate, a bit less annoying soulmate, and a lot of free T-shirts." I have to admit that her response gave me a sense of accomplishment! And also reminded me of you -my UNC Charlotte community, one of the most valuable rewards of this journey for me.

Now, let me tell you my story and what I gained in graduate school. When I first joined UNC Charlotte as a dual master's student in 2014, life was a lot different for me. I have to admit, unlike many might think, my motivation was not a passion for learning. Neither was it a goal or an image of who I wished to be... I entered graduate school because I did not feel safe and empowered where I was standing; I felt lost and vulnerable, I needed a change. I transferred from that dual master's to the Ph.D. program in Software and Information systems in 2015. And I got a master of IT along the way. Today, with a master's and a Ph.D. degree from UNC Charlotte, I can say with certainty that attending grad school here was one of the best opportunities of my life!

Here no one judged me for being lost, no one made me feel vulnerable for asking a question, and no one told me that I was incapable. I had been told that a lot before coming here. UNC Charlotte helped me to find my path, I stepped into an empowering journey that I enjoyed and learned from. It helped me to be flexible enough to know that I don't know everything, and confident enough to know I am capable of learning. I became eager to learn. My grad life helped me to find myself, what I am today, and to determine what I want to be ten years from now.

Our graduate life was a journey that we shared, and we are all field experts and scholars today. But scholarship is only one small aspect of who we are as individuals. Our graduate experience at UNC Charlotte gave us more than academic growth. We have grown and matured as people and this will allow us to contribute to those around us.

Let's be honest, graduate school was hard work, smart work, and persistence, but I enjoyed it. Because even when I was sipping my coffee at 2:00 a.m., folded behind my laptop, trying to figure out a reasonable thesis statement, I felt the support. I knew there were people supporting my success, not just my family from halfway across the world, whom I truly miss here today, also my advisor, my mentors, the Writing Center and the Graduate School, CAPS, and the Student Health Center, my peers, and the list goes on and on for me. We backed each other up to this moment to share this success. And today, more prepared than ever, we start our next journeys. Thank you for making it possible!

E.K. FRETWELL, U.S. HIGHER EDUCATION LEADER (1923-2012)

Dr. E.K. Fretwell used his national higher education leadership to gain recognition for UNC Charlotte. He became the University's second chancellor in January 1979 after serving as president of State University of New York College at Buffalo, and before that as assistant commissioner for higher education of the New York State Education Department. During his career, he led some of America's most prominent higher education associations - president of the American Association for Higher Education, president of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, chair of the American Council on Education, and chair of the Council on Postsecondary Accreditation. In addition, Fretwell was named one of the 100 most effective chancellors and university presidents in the United States in a national study. After retiring in 1989, he served as interim president of the five-campus University of Massachusetts, authored several books on university management, and consulted on higher education around the country and the world. He was awarded an Honorary Doctor of Public Service degree during UNC Charlotte's spring 1998 Commencement ceremonies. In 2002, he received the UNC Charlotte Alumni Association's Alumnus by Choice Award. Fretwell died October 18, 2012.

GREETINGS FROM THE UNDERGRADUATE GRADUATING CLASS

AMBER L. BENTON BACHELOR OF FINE ARTS

I want to begin by expressing my gratitude for this opportunity to voice my story by acknowledging that there is a story in every chair in this auditorium. For some of you, like me, this has been a long journey. I was first accepted to UNC Charlotte in 1994 as a Fretwell Scholar in Civil Engineering and today, twenty-seven years later, I am graduating with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Ceramics.

During this past year and a half since my return to UNC Charlotte I have felt like a bridge between two histories. I returned to an unchanged Rowe Arts building in which I swear some of the splatters of clay in the corners I made in 1997. There were still a couple of familiar faces but for the most part everyone I remembered was gone - too many into eternity. When I was here twenty-seven years ago I was unaware that I was a part of the collaborative history of this place. Perhaps until this moment you have not stopped to consider that during your time here you have also been creating a history.

As a student body we have passed through a series of events unlike those of any recent generation. Today, when I call out the phrase, “Niner Strong” there is a tangible emotional thread that connects many of you in a way that student body’s after you will not comprehend. Today we stand together not only with shared experiences of a global healthcare crisis but also those of social and political turmoil. Let’s pause just a moment to give thanks that we are actually standing together.

I want to thank you for the hospitality that you have extended this grey haired woman; thanks for allowing me to be your student. My year and a half with you has taught me that this generation has an unmatched humility and generosity. You are asking the right questions but most importantly you are listening. This gives me much hope because we, as a nation, have huge challenges ahead of us.

In the same way that my grandmother, Doris, who is a tailor understands how to preserve the durability of a garment after it’s owner’s body has changed shape, it is my hope that our generations might work together through these times of change to find the places that need to be taken in and the places that need to be let out so that the hem of our nation might hang straight.

One of the most important issues that we face – and will continue to face – is that of our widening rural-urban divide. I, like two of my favorite authors, Wendell Berry and Makoto Fujimura, believe that this divide is more than a political one and requires more than a political solution. My return to UNC Charlotte after a gap of nearly three decades has underlined for me the importance of the kind of generational thinking they both write about.

In The Unsettling of America, Wendell tells the story of an abandoned hillside farm. On the edge of the field was a small margin of land protected from the plow by a large rock. While the field itself had long since grown up and ‘gone to brush’ the small margin remained untouched. Wendell says that we can visibly measure the abandoned farmland by that small margin. Its very presence stands in contrast to the failed history of the field and if we care to see it, that small margin will show us what we should aspire to.

In his book, Culture Care, artist Makoto Fujimura also speaks of margins. He recognizes that we as artists and designers often move to the edges of and can easily transition between social groups. My friend, Malik, calls this being an ‘odd-factor’. Makoto uses the term ‘Mearcstapa’ to describe us as ‘border-walkers’. He encourages artists in the margins to be ‘messengers of hope and reconciliation to a divided culture;’ to function in roles of ‘empathy, memory, warning, guidance, mediation, and reconciliation’.

It is my hope that those of us entering into professional art and design practices might seek inspiration in ignored margins. What has been preserved that we might aspire to? I also hope that we can look to the edges of our own groups and cross over those margins and borders to work toward unity within diversity. Above all I hope that we can move forward with a newly considered awareness of the collaborative history that we leave behind. My sincere congratulations to the Class of 2021.

THE UNIVERSITY NICKNAME - 49ERS

The "49ers" nickname was chosen in recognition of the importance of the year 1949 in the history of the University. UNC Charlotte, which began as an off-campus center of the University of North Carolina, would have died in 1949 had Bonnie Cone and her supporters not convinced the N.C. Legislature that Charlotte needed a permanent institution of higher learning. Charlotte College was established that year. It is fortuitous that the University campus is located on N.C. Highway 49 and that Charlotte has a rich gold mining history.

A bronze statue of the 49er Gold Miner sits in the Cato College of Education and College of Health and Human Services Plaza. The statue recalls the region's history as a gold mining center and symbolizes the pioneering spirit and determination that has led to UNC Charlotte's dramatic growth.

JAMES H. WOODWARD, BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE

Dr. James H. Woodward became UNC Charlotte's third chancellor in 1989, immediately establishing himself as one of the leading executives of the Charlotte metropolitan region. A U.S. Air Force veteran, he worked in private industry and taught at North Carolina State University, the U.S. Air Force Academy, and the University of Alabama at Birmingham, where he was a senior vice president for academic affairs, prior to coming to UNC Charlotte. Under his leadership, UNC Charlotte launched ambitious plans for both physical and intellectual growth. Woodward built strong support among the region's corporate and political leaders, obtained approval to expand the University's mission to include doctoral programs, and raised the University to doctoral/research intensive status. He established UNC Charlotte Uptown to serve students in the central business district. An engineer, Woodward generated support to build the James H. Barnhardt Student Activity Center and the Irwin Belk Track and Field Center, obtained state funding for doubling the size of the J. Murrey Atkins Library, and was instrumental in garnering public support to pass a $3.1 billion statewide bond referendum that enabled UNC Charlotte to construct or renovate nearly a dozen buildings. He retired in 2005.

Woodward has received numerous honors, including the naming of the science and technology building in 2005 as James H. and Martha H. Woodward Hall in recognition of his 16 years of service. In May 2011, UNC Charlotte awarded him an honorary degree, Doctor of Public Service. Woodward received the UNC Charlotte Alumni Association's Alumnus by Choice Award in 2012. In November 2017, he was awarded the North Carolina Award for Public Service, the highest award a civilian can receive from the Governor.

DAKOTA D. MONAGHAN

CANDIDATE FOR BACHELOR OF ARTS, COMPUTER SCIENCE

Hello graduates, families, and friends.

My name is Dakota Desiree Monaghan and it is my sincere honor to deliver the commencement address to you today. Class of 2021, congratulations! We did it! I, like many of you, am so grateful and proud to be here celebrating this beginning with you. In computing, an iteration is a piece of code executing an infinite amount of times until the code executes the desired result. Essentially, it is a task that is being repeated. In these iterations, we can find flaws. Whether it's having to double-check your math, dosages, or electrical connections, these are errors we have to go back and fix. Boy, can those errors be painful to fix.

But it is no different than life itself. We have gone through multiple rounds of painful transformation and change-- and yet, we keep going; all for the desired outcome to be received. Sometimes, it is easy to feel as though the loop will never end. For example, being diagnosed with an auto-immune disease on the heels of this pandemic. How long is this going to take? How many iterations? How many transformations does it take? Well, the answer to that is simply: until it is done. But at the heart of it, it doesn't matter when you finish or how you finish, it's what you learned. It's how you grew. Because those are the moments that shape us into being more agile, more resilient individuals. Moments of what now looking back feel like a blip in our memory. We saw a problem that needed to be fixed. We did the hard work to find a solution and even if we didn't feel like it, we understood it had to be done. And from there, we knew better--and before anyone else could make the same mistake, we were there to help them. We grew our knowledge and resources, our effort, and our determination.

Teddy Roosevelt said life's about being the man in the arena. No matter how many times we find ourselves in the arena, no matter how many iterations, we prove ourselves time and time again by rising after taking blows, rolling up our sleeves, and coming back two times harder. We prove ourselves through these iterations because we will not be shaken in the pursuit of our dreams. No matter what may come, or how hard we get hit. Through the difficulties we've faced, the determination we've learned came from being the man in the arena.

We know what victory feels like now - here we are. But for all of us, I believe I can say this is only a taste of what victory we will feel in our lives. I am speaking to you, graduates, the waymakers, the pathmakers, the trail-blazers. It's about deeds, not words. We didn't just say we were going to graduate; we did. We will not say "we are going to succeed"; we will. With each lesson we've learned, we have become more courageous. This victory is also shared by our wonderful professors, families, and mentors who taught, supported, and rallied around us to the finish line. Our lights have grown brighter. And I know this because as I look at you, and as your loved ones look at you, you are radiating.

This kind of victory makes your heart gleam so immensely. Your eyes water. And I can promise you with each arena you face, you will know victory. Because triumphing through adversity proves darkness has no dominion over your life. Step back and look at how you've transformed, in every iteration and every arena. Wow, what a beautiful outcome.

Congratulations class of 2021! It's time for us to go out and show the world what mountains we can move!

Thank you.

HISTORY OF THE ALMA MATER

Creation of UNC Charlotte's Alma Mater is rooted deep in the University's history. It is part of the "Academic Festival March" that was composed for UNC Charlotte by James Helme Sutcliffe, a Charlotte composer and music critic who lived in Germany at the time.

Dr. Loy Witherspoon, professor of religious studies, commissioned the march in 1965 after he learned Charlotte College would become a campus of the consolidated UNC system. The march was initially performed in 1967 for the installation of Dean W. Colvard as UNC Charlotte's first chancellor. Afterward, it was performed as a recessional at every commencement held during Chancellor Colvard's tenure.

UNC Charlotte founder Bonnie Cone, upon hearing the march, remarked, "I can hear an alma mater in it," referring to a hymn-like final refrain. Dr. Robert Rieke, a professor of history, also heard an alma mater in the march. During a 1990 trip to Germany, Rieke visited march composer Sutcliffe, where he picked up a recording of the march. Rieke began writing words to fit the final refrain. On Christmas Eve 1991, Rieke sent Bonnie Cone the words and music as a Christmas present to her and the University, from which he had retired a year earlier.

Chancellor James H. Woodward approved Rieke's composition as the University's Alma Mater in April 1992. It was sung for the first time at the following May commencement and has been performed at every commencement since.

PHILIP L. DUBOIS ENROLLMENT GROWTH AND ACADEMIC EXPANSION

At the time of his retirement on June 30, 2020, Dr. Philip L. Dubois, UNC Charlotte's fourth chancellor, was the senior chancellor in the University of North Carolina system. He led the system's fastest-growing institution, directing a 43% growth in enrollment, an expansion of academic programs, implementation of diversity-related initiatives, growth in research funding, and significant construction and renovation of campus facilities. Under Dubois' strategic direction, football was added to the University's athletics offerings in 2013, and he collaborated with elected officials and the Charlotte Area Transit System to make possible the construction of the light rail line from Center City Charlotte to the UNC Charlotte campus. He also took the University to new levels in fundraising, overseeing the largest private campaign in UNC Charlotte's history, which exceeded its $200 million goal. Dubois' career in higher education spanned more than 40 years. Previously, he served as president of the University of Wyoming, provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs at UNC Charlotte and associate vice chancellor for academic programs at the University of California, Davis. Dubois has been recognized regionally and nationally as an expert in higher education, achieving many awards and accolades during his respected career. In 2020, Dubois was recognized by the American Council on Education with its Outstanding Mentor Award, by the UNC Charlotte Alumni Association with its Honorary Alumnus Award, and by North Carolina Governor Roy Cooper with The Order of the Long Leaf Pine, the state's highest civilian award.

CHANCELLOR SHARON L. GABER

Sharon L. Gaber, Ph.D., became the fifth chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte in July 2020.

A native of Southern California, Gaber earned an A.B. in Economics and Urban Studies from Occidental College, an M.P.L. in Urban Planning from the University of Southern California, and a Ph.D. in City & Regional Planning from Cornell University.

Prior to her arrival at UNC Charlotte, Gaber served for five years as the President of the University of Toledo. Earlier in her career, she served as provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs at the University of Arkansas. She has also served as an interim provost at Auburn University and a faculty member and administrator at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

An academic with a background in city and regional planning, Gaber has written numerous articles on regional and urban planning, public policy and the social dynamics that affect community decision-making.

She is also co-author of a book on planning research methods. Gaber was recently named by the Charlotte Business Journal as one of the Most Admired CEO's of 2021. She was also named to the Business North Carolina 2021 Power List, and she was designated by Education Dive as one of five higher education leaders to watch in 2018 and beyond. Deeply engaged in community and regional activities, she has served on multiple NCAA committees, and in 2020 she was named a YWCA Northwest Ohio Milestone award recipient for women's leadership.

Officially the first woman to serve as chancellor of UNC Charlotte, Gaber follows the trail blazed by founding educator Bonnie Cone, who led the institution from 1946-1966 through several stages of growth.

Dr. Gaber is the proud mother of three adult children.

HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY

UNC Charlotte was one of a generation of institutions founded in metropolitan areas following World War II. Created as the Charlotte Center, the institution opened on September 23, 1946. It offered evening classes to an initial class of 278 freshmen and sophomores in the facilities of Charlotte's Central High School. In 1949, the city's pioneering business and civic leaders, aware of the region's unmet need for a public institution of higher education, moved to have the Charlotte Center taken over by the city school district and operated as Charlotte College, offering the first two years of college courses.

By 1961, the firmly established Charlotte College was experiencing rapid growth that resulted in the establishment of a campus of its own. In the same year, Charlotte College leaders moved its burgeoning student population into the first two buildings on what would become a 1,000-acre campus ten miles from downtown Charlotte. In 1963, the North Carolina legislature approved bills making Charlotte College a four-year, state-supported institution. In 1965, the legislature passed bills designating the College the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, the fourth campus of the consolidated state system. Expansion continued as the University began offering master's degrees in 1969. In 1992, UNC Charlotte received authorization for its first doctoral programs. Today, celebrating its 75th anniversary, UNC Charlotte is the state's urban research institution and the system's second largest public university with greater than 30,000 students enrolled in 77 bachelor's, 65 master's and 24 doctoral degree programs.
